PROFILE

I work as a photographer, sound artist and writer with 19 years experience, collaborating with people on place and the relevance of belonging for personal and environmental wellbeing. I have exhibited internationally in 45 exhibitions including in the United Kingdom, America and Australia. Highlights include: an exhibition commissioned for the Glasgow Commonwealth Games Cultural Festival (2014) and its subsequent Australian tour (2015 to 2019) which reached 18,110 visitors; highly commended in the chairman's professional artist category of the UK King Lear Art Prize (2020); finalist in Art and About Photographic Award, Australia (2019); finalist in the Olive Cotton Award for Photographic Portraiture, Australia (2019); finalist in the Sydney International Head On Photographic Awards (2018 and 2019); finalist in the Scottish Photographic Portrait Awards (2018); and following an Antarctic Division Arts Fellowship, a MAGSQ tour of the resulting exhibition from 2005 to 2012. I have held numerous residencies including in Antarctica, Bolivia, Canada, Australia and Scotland. I have been the recipient of numerous government, city council and private trust fund grants. Some example funders include: Festival 2014, Glasgow Commonwealth Games; Scottish Arts Council pARTners residency; ABC Radio National commission; Arts Fellow of the Australian Antarctic Division; Arts Queensland; Flying Arts Alliance; Ian Potter Cultural Trust; Hi-Arts; Brisbane City Council; Creative Scotland; Bòrd na Gàidhlig; National Theatre Scotland; Glasgow Merchant City Festival.
